

QUALITY POLICY

As Kale Care Chemicals, being among the leading companies in domestic and international markets,

Transporting high quality products to our customers in economical prices and in desired time,

Making our employees happy and motivated by ensuring a continuous education and appropriate work environment,

Creating common goals within our firm that follow recency,

Following current technological innovations and gaining an advantage over competing companies,

Doing right the first time and increasing productivity by continuously carrying out improvement and development activities in all processes will be our main methods and principles,

Respecting the environment in our activities related to the operation of the system, Making conscious studies on the environment and taking precautions against matters that may be harmful to the environment.